ALPS OutdoorZ Monarch X Women's Pack

NEW HAVEN, Mo. - Looking to bring the signature brand of quality designs and features to the first women specific, western oriented daypack in the Extreme line, ALPS OutdoorZ proudly announces the Monarch X.

The Monarch X is a daypack / meat hauler hybrid pack that can be used as a standard daypack, but also gives the user the option to haul out meat after a successful harvest with the built in stow away meat shelf. The shoulder straps and waist belt are designed to fit a woman's figure much more comfortably than a standard hunting pack. Utilizing 1680D Nylon Ballistics fabric throughout and featuring Hypalon built into the lashing and stress points, this pack is unmatched for strength and durability. Dual aluminum stays help distribute the weight evenly and comfortably, while Lycra shoulder straps with built in load lifters and a molded foam waist belt are used to insure the most comfortable fit possible. The waist belt includes quick access pockets on either side, anti-sway straps, and can even accommodate clip style holsters.

The Monarch X features four compartments; two fleece lined side wing pockets (perfect for spotting scopes, optics, or a tripod/shooting stick), one front organizational pocket, and the main pocket. The Monarch X is equipped with multiple compressions straps, including lower bedding straps, and comes with additional extension lashing straps for when the need arises. A hydration pocket and port are included in the design, as is a drop-down rifle or bow pocket that allows hunters to carry a rifle or bow hands free. A rain cover is included, and the included light makes finding gear in the dark no problem.
